

This Week in U-M History March 18-24

1837

The Michigan Legislature voted March 18 to establish the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor.

1952

Hundreds of men stormed women's residence halls March 20 in what became known as a "panty raid."

1965

More than 3,000 people turned out March 24 for a late-night Vietnam teach-in led by faculty.

1970

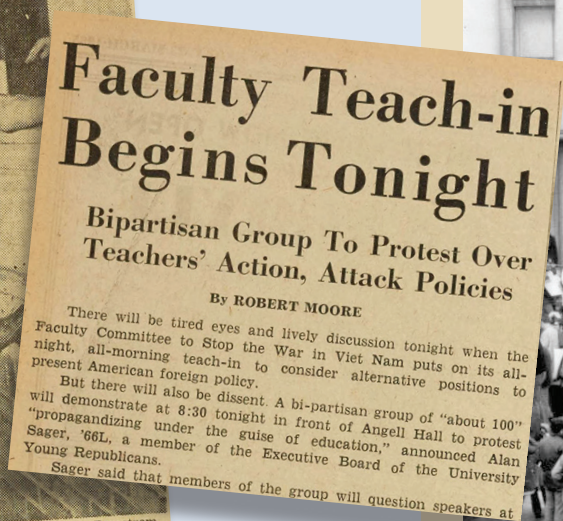

Calling for more underrepresented students, the Black Action Movement began a classroom strike March 20.

1994

Sierra Romero, the first four-time All-American in Michigan softball history, was born March 19.

THE MICHIGAN DAILY

THE MICHIGAN DAILY

BENTLEY HISTORICAL LIBRARY

MICHIGAN ATHLETICS